

CODE OF CONDUCT 2024

The Swansea Pride code of conduct is designed to ensure that Swansea Pride, as a space for LGBTQ+ people across the city, is safe and inclusive for everyone. As we celebrate together there is a standard of behaviour that is expected from all parade groups, stallholders, volunteers, performers and participants.

All groups applying to take part in Swansea Pride must agree to and abide by the code of conduct as a condition of entry.

The code of conduct applies equally to everyone whether you are part of the parade, a performer or whether you are a stallholder. It also applies to anyone entering our Pride site and venues.

- Swansea Pride is committed to creating a welcoming, inclusive, and supportive space for ALL who attend our Festival Events and Parade
- Swansea Pride will not tolerate any threatening, violent or offensive behaviour against its volunteers, parade participants, stallholders, security personnel or members of the public.
- Pride celebrates diversity and will not tolerate any individual or group engaged in offensive behaviour, or any signage targeting another individuals:
